The Evening

We would like to offer you a warm welcome and hope you have a wonderful time of dinner, music, and variety this evening at the Rotlint Cafe. The entertainment begins at 20:00 with dinner music by Dave and Bob. Feel free to mix and mingle in quiet conversation during this time. Please order your dinner as soon as possible so that everyone will be ready for the programmed performance at 21:00. To ensure everyone enjoys the show, we would like to ask for everyone's participation and attention for this hour-long segment. Following the variety hour, you can once again feel free to chat while you enjoy the music. Enjoy the show!

Jokes and Readers

Please submit your joke in writing to the stage as soon as possible. We are looking for 3-5 willing audience members to help with readings during the program. Or maybe you want to tell your joke yourself?

The Dinner Hour

David Brown and Bob Crook will perform music from Buddy Holly, Elvis, The Everly Brothers, The Platters, and others. Sit back and enjoy and give a wink to the performers every so often. Say something witty. Make a new friend. Eat and drink heartily. Talk about Life, the Universe, and Everything (42). Be the life of the party. Mild flirting is not discouraged, as long it's not too loud.

The Program

Following dinner (about 21:00) we have a planned program for you. You will hear about your favorite 50's-60's performers and more of their music. And we will have special music, readings, and your jokes. And what else?

The Performers

David Scott Brown
Bob Crook

Special Guests

Bruce Hunter, singer
Monroe Coburn, author

Recognition

Many thanks to the Rotlint Cafe and staff for hosting this event. Be sure that you express your appreciation to them for their great food and service.
