

Frankfurt English Speaking Theatre e.V.

English-language theatre in the Rhein-Main region

HOME | LINKS | ARCHIVE | CONTACT | TICKETS | ABOUT US

Impressions of recent events

The Vagina Monologues 2006

The Complete Works of William Shakespeare \(abridged\)

SnowWhite and the Seven Vertically Challenged People

The Frankfurt English Speaking Theatre (FESTe.V.) recently presented an evening of two American theater greats: at the Interkulturelle Bühne, Alt Bornheim 32, Frankfurt-Bornheim.

The Zoo Story

by Edward Albee, the author of Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf directed by Chris Palmer

The Zoo Story explores how two different lives can suddenly collide and in an instant change both forever.

and Eleemosynary

by Lee Blessing, directed by Abigail Paul

Eleemosynary - el-uh-mos-uh-ner-ee (adj.) Charitable; the giving of alms. A candid and often humorous look at mother-daughter relationships that is full of painfully true observations of familial ties and wise insights into the intangible bonds that link families together.

Eleemosynary was taken in competition to the annual FEATS festival (www.feats.eu), this time in Stockholm, and won second prize. Congratulations to all those involved!